What is Naviance?

Naviance is a web based program for academic planning, college and career research. Naviance helps students connect what they do in the classroom to their life goals, including finding colleges and careers based on their personal skills and areas of interests. Connecting their interests to potential career paths early ensures active participation in their own academic success and helps to open their eyes to the wide world of career opportunities. The career planning tools in Naviance allow them to understand how their strengths, goals, skills, and interests can lead to exciting careers.

Naviance provides multiple options for researching colleges as well as careers.

Naviance also serves as the primary avenue for submission of transcripts and letters of recommendation for students who are applying to two and four year colleges in their senior year.

Anything else? Yes!

Naviance allows us to communicate with students and alumni, collect data, and track progress on assessments, surveys, and applications.

Find out what your talents are.

Strengths Explorer, powered by Gallup, will help uncover your talents and reveal your potential strengths to you and the people in your world. From there, you will begin a wonderful journey of discovery, and you'll have the tools you need to make the most of your talents.

Quick tips:

- 1. You'll answer 78 short questions.
- 2. You can only take this once. (Your school can't reset this for you.)
- 3. You can't go back and change your answers as you progress.
- 4. Your answers are automatically saved, but we recommend finishing it in one sitting.

O Theme Details

Here is a complete summary of your themes from Stre

your top three themes. The descriptions of your top themes probably express the way you are much, or even most, of the time. Friends, parents and teachers might use similar words to describe you. Learning about your talents can help you grow and build strengths, as well as help you achieve what you want to do in your life.

You are the only person with your exact combination of talents - even if someone has the same top themes as you. As you read through your top themes, please remember that while some of the talents described may not fit you, many of the talents described should sound very familiar - and that is what's important. To learn about your own talents, oay the most attention to the sentences that sound the most

Dependability

Trust is important to you, and you care about being seen as responsible and trustworthy. People count on you to do what you say you will do. When you make a promise you mean to keen it. You like helps chosen to be in charge of setting something done herause you know it means others see you as dependable and trustworthy. Sometimes, being asked to do more is like setting a reward because it means people believe in you. Maybe you have special chores or responsibilities at home or at school. Whatever job you are given, you want to get it done. Some people might say you act older than other kids your age because you are so responsible. You can be a good example to other people. Earning the praise of teachers and parents for getting things done and doing what is right feels good to you. People count on you to do what you say you will do.

You see many things in life as a game, and you feel great joy when you win. You truly hate to lose because you are always striving for first place. Every day you compete. Winning first place is your goal in any contest that you feel is worth your time. If there is no one to compete against you compete against yourself to do more or accomplish a goal faster or better. You can be competing against someone else even when that person doesn't know it. Because you hate to lose, you might get angry, upset, or even cry, it does not matter if others think the contest is important. If you are doing it, you want to be number one. Others look to you for the motivation to win.

A thinker and learner, you are excited about exploring ideas and making connections. You like to ask the questions "How?" and "Why?" Duestions are in your mind a lot. How does that work? Why did that happen? How did someone figure that out? You are excited to explore new ideas and ask questions so you understand the "how" and "why" of the things you choose to learn. You collect and connect information and ideas. It is fun to be an expert, and when you find a subject or idea you like, you can spend a lot of time exploring it. You might be bored doing things the same way everyone else does because you like to find new ways. Talking with creative thinkers is fun because it sparks even more ideas. People can benefit from your information and ideas when you share them.

Below you'll find some ideas for using your greatest talents. Talents are like muscles. When you exercise, your mo stronger. In the same way, the more you use talents, the more they can help you develop strengths. You might w mark next to the suggestions that fit you best and simply ignore the ones that don't seem to fit you today. These you started thinking about how to use your talents. You may have other ideas that suit you well. The important t suggestion to put into action right away and get started using your unique talents to develop strengths.

1. Dependability - Action Items

Until you get important things finished, you probably don't feel quite right. You should tell yourself "Good job" for or calls to friends done without being told. Other people may need more reminders than you do. See how many thin before you are reminded. Take pride in being able to say, "I already did it" when asked.

☐ It's important to do what you say you will do. You like to keep your promises and you understand that keeping the make a promise, be sure it is one you want to keep and one you can keep. When people choose a friend or leader, ti can be trusted to do what they say they will do. Build a reputation that you are groud of.

You almost always know the right thing to do. If someone plans to do something that you don't think is right, don't wants to do something that might get him or her in trouble or hurt someone's feelings, what could you say to help ch you plan the right words to say in a hard situation? You can help your friends by being a good example and not going you uncomfortable. You might be surprised that others are glad you spoke up.
