

Name: _____

Level: Q

What you should know about my level:

- Wide variety of fiction and nonfiction
- Fiction texts include novels with longer chapters
- Characters are often concerned with issues related to growing up and family relationships
- Settings are very detailed
- Informational texts and biographies present complex ideas
- Topics may be unfamiliar
- Longer texts require readers to sustain interest and attention over several days
- More mature themes, focusing on problems of society as they affect children
- Texts contain difficult words to solve, often including words from other languages

All-Star Examples: James and the Giant Peach, Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing
