

Four Fall Student-Athletes Named to All-Sportsmanship Team

LANCASTER, PA - Four Washington College student-athletes have been named to the Centennial Conference All-Sportsmanship Team for fall sports. Each Centennial Conference member institution was permitted to nominate one student from each fall program who exemplifies the best in sportsmanship. Nominations were submitted by the athletic departments or head coaches.

Junior defender Emily Broomell (East Petersburg, PA/Lancaster Christian) represented Washington's field hockey team, sophomore midfielder Justin Geho (Westminster, MD/Cardinal Gibbons) represented Washington's men's soccer team, sophomore defender Kim McClellan (Wallingford, PA/Strath Haven) represented Washington's women's soccer team, and senior middle hitter Maria Whitman (Galesville, MD/Southern) represented Washington's volleyball team.