

Essay: How do archaeologists learn about the past? Explain three different methods archaeologists can use to piece together the past.

Bring the completed, good copy of the essay to class on the day of the test. If you do not have the finished essay, you will be required to write it during the testing period.

Essay Outline

Name:

Create a topic sentence from the given question that will let your reader know what your essay will be about.

---

---

First technique that archeologists use:

Supporting details that explain what it is and how the method works

Second technique that archeologists use:

Supporting details that explain what it is and how the method works

Third technique that archeologists use:

Supporting details that explain what it is and how the method works

Concluding sentence: Wrap up your essay by restating the topic sentence.

---