

3. Delegation of Responsibility 4. Guidelines	The Superintendent or designee shall develop procedures for the implementation of independent study. Recommendations for approval may include the qualifications of the student, the objectives established for the course, a description of the method of study and research to be undertaken, the staff members assigned to advise the project, the manner in which the project will be evaluated, and a proposal for the number of credits to be awarded for the course. Courses of independent study need not be limited to participation by a single student but may involve more than one or a group of students, subject to Board approval.
---	---