

Questions to Ask to Get to Know a Reading Partner

? Can we look over your log and talk about how much you are reading at home and at school? Are there times you read less? Why do you think that happens?

? Where do you find the books you read?

? When you find books that are perfect for you, what do those books tend to be like?

? What are your goals for yourself as a reader? What are you doing to meet them?

? If you think over your life as a reader, what have been the big turning points for you? Tell me more about one turning point—how did your reading change? What did you realize about yourself as a reader?

? Who has helped your reading? What did that person do that was helpful?
